Haryana Media Accreditation Committee

3. (1) The Government of Haryana shall constitute a Committee called the Haryana Media Accreditation Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "HMAC") to discharge the functions laid down under these rules.
- (2) The HMAC shall consist of Administrative Secretary of Information, Public Relations and Cultural Affairs Department, Haryana, as Chairperson; DGIPR/ADIPR as Member Secretary and members representing associations/organisations of working journalists/mediapersons who should otherwise be eligible for accreditation under these rules.
- (3) The HMAC once constituted shall function for a period of three years from the date of its first meeting' or till the new committee is constituted.
- (4) The HMAC shall meet quarterly on first Monday of every quarter month. For example, the first meeting will be held on first Monday of January, 2nd on April, 3rd on July and the 4th on October. The DGIPR/ADIPR shall be competent to grant accreditation on temporary basis to those applicants who apply between the intervening period of the meetings of the committee. These cases, however, shall be put up to the HMAC for grant of regular accreditation.
- (5) The decisions of the HMAC shall be taken on the basis of majority of the members present or voting.

General Terms of Accreditation

4. (1) Accreditation shall be given in accordance with these rules to news media/press representatives of various categories in different types of news media/press organisations as per eligibility conditions laid down in Schedule I and within the quota limit specified in Schedule-II of these rules.
- (2) Accreditation shall be granted to only those representatives, who have been appointed at State, District, Sub Divisional, block level headquarters or National Capital Territory, Delhi covering Haryana news and residing at their place of posting.

- (3) Accreditation does not confer any official or special status on the correspondent. It merely recognises and identifies him as representative of the newspaper/agency/electronic media which employs him. It must be used only for journalistic purpose. The words 'Accredited to Haryana Government' shall not be used on visiting cards, letterheads or any other literature.
- (4) Accreditation of representatives of only those media organisations shall be considered which have been functioning or operating for at least one year continuously. Also the applicant should have at least one year experience in the field of journalism. HMAC could consider the application of new organizations on case to case basis.
- (5) The circulation certificate issued by Registrar News of India or Audit Bureau of Circulation, DAVP, CA alongwith an affidavit shall be considered for grant of accreditation.
- (6) Publications should carry at least 50 per cent of its contents as news and/or comments of general public interest. It shall also include news and information relating to Haryana State.
- (7) Publications containing information of sectional interest or promotional propaganda such as house journals, technical/professional publications etc. are not eligible for accreditation.
- (8) The organisations owned and run by cable operators providing cable television service through cable television network shall not be eligible for accreditation.
- (9) Accreditation is personal and non transferable.
- (10) When the representative ceases to represent the newspaper/agency/electronic media for which he is accredited, his accreditation shall be deemed to be cancelled from the day he ceases to represent that organisation. However, this fact should also be brought to the notice of the DGIPR/ ADIPR in writing with immediate effect by both the representative and the Editor-in-Chief/Editor/ Resident Editor or Appointing Authority, as the case may be and the Accreditation Card may be returned back to DGIPR/ ADIPR within 15 days.
- (11) An 'Accreditation Card' shall be issued to each accredited representative which shall be valid for various functions and press conferences. Admission to special functions including press conference, however, shall be governed by invitation.
- (12) Editors/News Editors/Resident Editor of a reputed and well-established National/ Regional daily newspaper and TV channel having circulation not less than 20,000 in the case of newspaper and minimum annual revenue of Rs. 15 lakh from news clips and news service in the case of electronic media may also be granted accreditation.

Procedure of Accreditation

(1) The mediaperson who wishes to seek accreditation may apply in the prescribed form procedure for accreditation as given at Annexure-I alongwith all requisite documents/ proffs claimed, duly signed by the Editor-in-/ Chief/ Editor/ Managing Editor/ Resident Editor/ Editor/ News Editor or appointing/ competent authority, as the case may be.
- (2) Mediaperson based at State headquarters shall apply through his Editor-in-Chief, Editor, Managing Editor, Resident Editor or the appointing/ competent authority directly to Director, General Information, Public Relations and Cultural Affairs, Haryana while those bases at District and Sub Division / block level shall apply to the concerned District Information Public Relations Officer (DIPRO) of their district.
- (3) Mediaperson bases at Delhi covering, Haryana only shall apply through Editor-in-Chief, Editor, Managing Editor, Resident Editor or the appointing authority to the Joint/ Deputy Director or the Incharge, Information, Public Relation and Cultural Affairs, Haryana Bhawan, New Delhi.
- (4) The Director General, Information, Public Relations and Cultural Affairs Department, Haryana, can call for any information and documents considered for the purpose of ensuring credibility and genuineness of cases of accreditation, at the time of accreditation or at its renewal or at any other time, if so required.
- (5) The list of accredited mediaperson shall be reviewed normally once in a year by the Director General, Information, Public Relations and Cultural Affairs Department, Haryana, for the purpose of changes in respect of accredited mediapersons of newspapers, news agencies and electronic media.

Disaccreditation

6. (1) A mediaperson shall be liable to disaccreditation if;
- (a) The mediaperson ignores or violates the conditions on which he/she was given accreditation, accreditation will cease to exist and is also liable to be withdrawn/suspended if it is found to have been misused;
 - (b) An applicant or a media organization is found to have supplied false/ fraudulent/ forged information/ documents, the representative/ media organization shall be deemed as debarred from accreditation up to a maximum of five years;
 - (c) In case during the course of his duties, the media person behaves in an undignified or unprofessional manner, the Haryana Media Accreditation Committee shall give him an opportunity of a personal hearing before taking any decision.
 - (d) In case an accredited mediaperson is found to be associated with any political party or its office bearer, then in that case, his accreditation would be cancelled after affording an opportunity of hearing to him.
- (2) Accreditation of a mediaperson may be suspended at the discretion of the State Government. The matter, along with any representation that may be received from the representative, shall be referred to the Media Accreditation Committee for advice. Government decision in the matter shall, however, be final.
- (3) The Administrative Secretary of Information, Public Relations and Cultural Affairs or Chairperson of HMAC shall have the power to grant regular accreditation in cases where an accredited news media/press representative changes his organization to another accredited organization.
- (4) The HMAC reserves to itself the right to recommend or reject grant of accreditation. In all accreditation cases, decision of the Government shall be final.

Note.— Accreditation is a facility not a right. Hence, it could not be challenged in any court of law.
